

AMAZING VITALITY

Of Pope Leo Still the Topic of Discussion at the Vatican in Rome.

Attending Physician Gives no Encouragement to Hope for His Recovery But Says the Venerable Pontiff May Live Fifteen Days.

Rome, July 11.—The Pope continued to hold his own. A slight improvement is manifested in the primary ailment but the condition of the kidneys now gives cause for a renewal of anxiety. This is increased by the danger of the Pontiff's heart giving out at any moment. In a general way, however, the brave old patient may be said to be more comfortable than for several days. The doctors now say they would scarcely be surprised if the recovery for another fifteen days. This afternoon the extra ordinary nonagenarian received in audience, three cardinals, one belonging to the order of St. John, one to the order of St. Basil, and one to the order of St. Stephen, in the private chapel of the Pontifical apartments.

A triumph for the Pope's recovery was commenced today, and will continue unceasingly until Monday night. Prayers will be said and chanted in Pope Leo's behalf and the expenses of the services will be borne by the ancient body known as the "Pope's" familiars.

A despatch from Turin, announces that even in that cradle of the house of Savoy, which wrested the temporal power from the Vatican, the people are dominated by anxiety regarding the Pope's condition. The inhabitants today formed an imposing procession, headed by priests and slowly marched through the streets, chanting intercessions. At the church of the consistory the Archbishop of Turin, Cardinal Richelmy himself, a possible successor of the Pope, addressed the multitude and pronounced an eulogium of Leo XIII, declaring that his death would be an irreparable loss to the church of Rome. The British government has been obliged to forego its custom dating back many years, of holding no diplomatic intercourse with the Vatican. Today the government called direct to Cardinal Rampolla as secretary of state, saying a cable message had been received from the government of New Zealand, inquiring about the Pope's health, and requesting an answer in order to transmit it to Premier Seddon. Considerable significance was attached at the Vatican to this incident.

REMAINS

In Bed in Accordance With Wishes of Physicians.

Rome, July 11.—At 10 a. m.—Contrary to his usual habit, the Pope did not get up this morning, not because of any unusual depression, as his general condition is somewhat improved, but because the doctors urged him to rest as much as possible, and to stay in bed. The foregoing comes from authoritative sources, thus disproving the reports that the Pope is falling rapidly.

General Condition Unchanged.

Rome, July 11.—At 12:20 p. m.—The general condition of the Pope is unchanged. He took his midday nourishment of sweet breads, chicken, jelly, and a small glass of Marsala wine.

Had Peaceful Sleep.

Rome, July 11.—At 3:30 p. m.—Shortly after the midday meal, the Pope fell into a peaceful sleep, which still continues.

HOPE

For Recovery of Pope Has Again Risen at Vatican.

Rome, July 11.—Hopes of the Pope's recovery have again risen at the Vatican through the restful night, taken as a whole, passed by the Pontiff and his attendants have been able to enjoy much needed rest, which, however, meant for the faithful valet, Pio Centra, arising at four o'clock in the morning.

Dr. Laponi paid a visit to the Pope at seven o'clock. The Pontiff at first was not in a good humor, saying he could not stand remaining so many hours in bed, never having been accustomed to lie down for longer than four or five hours at a time. The doctor, however, succeeded, most patiently, in convincing him that when persons are ill, it is necessary to change their habits, even if they seem not to be so comfortable. "Is it really necessary?" asked the Pontiff.

Dr. Laponi replied: "It is not indispensable, but it will certainly assist our efforts."

"Then," concluded the Pope: "I must do so."

After this, the Pontiff's face again assumed its habitual bright, benevolent expression, and he smiled as he had done in his best moments. This conversation with the doctor succeeded in so tranquilizing the Pope, that he refused to see Monsignor Piffen, his confessor. Having expressed a desire to hear mass, the Pontiff's secretary, Monsignor Angeli, celebrated it in the chapel adjacent to the sickroom, leaving the door open so that the Pope could follow the service.

Shortly afterwards, Dr. Mazzoni visited the Pope and confirmed the relatively good condition of the patient as observed by Dr. Laponi, with the exception of the working of the kidneys, which continue to cause apprehension, as they are not functioning well. The amelioration in his holiness breathing, will continue until liquid regurgitates in the pleura. The Pope's pulse is better, and the movements of his bowels are regular.

On leaving the sickroom, Dr. Mazzoni was surrounded by the church dignitaries, who were waiting in the ante chamber, anxious for news. A picket of the noble guard, in their gorgeous uniforms, stood silently among the somberly garbed prelates, gave a pleasing touch of color to the scene.

Cardinal Rampolla waited for Dr. Mazzoni in the throne room, and when the physician appeared, the papal secretary of state requested him to make a detailed report of the Pope's condition. After complying, Dr. Mazzoni complained to the cardinal of the gossip and criticism concerning the doctors' diagnosis of the illness of the Pope, and the treatment being administered. In reply, Cardinal Rampolla expressed unbounded confidence in the physicians.

"This is why," the cardinal added, "I never interfered in any way in the consultations."

On leaving the Vatican, Dr. Mazzoni was stopped and asked for the news by Cardinal Cavagnis, who, with a number of other cardinals, called early at the Vatican for information, while other cardinals sent their secretaries for the latest reports.

The wives of Count Canali and Count Moroni, nieces of the Pope, having expressed a desire to see the Pontiff, he said:

"I must refer them to my doctors. If they will allow me to do so I shall be very happy to receive them."

While Dr. Mazzoni was in the sickroom, the Pope took a cup of meat-broth. To understand the sudden and radical change occurring not so much in the Pope's condition as in the feeling of the public when rumors are circulated about the improved or set back state of the Pontiff's health, one should understand the state of nervousness likened to an electrical condition of the atmosphere, which has been aroused throughout Rome, and especially around the Vatican, during the past week of trepidation and anxiety. A general desire to see Pope Leo win another battle and accomplish what would appear to be a miracle, against all former experiences and the laws of science, is uniting everybody, Catholics as well as others. In one, supreme wish to see the Pope out of danger.

A representative of the Associated Press saw one of the Pope's doctors, after this morning's visit, and they assured him that the amelioration which had taken place in the condition of the Pope since the last operation, was more noticeable than any which had occurred since the Pontiff became ill, but it was not sufficient to enable them to consider the patient out of imminent danger. The probability is that liquid will again gather in the pleura, rendering necessary, perhaps, several new operations. The whole question is, will the patient make constant progress, and thus during the intervals between each operation, gain strength enough to gradually absorb the liquid which forms in the pleura, or will his weakness augment, which would mean ultimately a catastrophe?

Rampolla Cables.

Washington, July 11.—Mgr. Falconio, the papal delegate this morning received the following cablegram from Cardinal Rampolla:

"After calm night, the Holy Father feels somewhat better."

SACRED MITRE

Of Saint Gennaro Sent From Naples to the Vatican.

Rome, July 11.—In view of the serious condition of the Pontiff the Neapolitans have had recourse to their most sacred and seldom used method of rendering him assistance. St. Gennaro is their greatest saint and his mitre is preserved at Naples. It is said to work miracles. The aristocracy and clergy of Naples begged the archbishops to send the mitre to Rome and he allows it to leave the city for the first time in many years. The precious relic was entrusted to Monsignor Prince Caracciolo, who arrived with it safely in Rome today. At the Vatican the mitre was received by Charles Rampolla and Monsignor Bisleti, who with great ceremony, thanked the Neapolitans for their piety and self-sacrifice in allowing the mitre to come here. After the Cardinal had invited Mgr. Caracciolo to remain for some days in this city the sacred relic was deposited in the sick room.

CONTINUED SLEEP

Of the Weakened Patient is Considered Unnatural.

Rome, July 11.—At 3:30 p. m.—The Pope continues to sleep, and those about him consider this sleep to be unnatural and arising from an augmentation of weakness. It is expected that all three doctors will go to the sickroom twice this afternoon, at five and at seven p. m.

VOLPINI

Person Asked About by Leo... Thinks Strange He Doesn't Call.

Rome, July 11.—Later in the day the Pope received the Countess Canali and the Countess Moroni, his nieces, and after a short chat with them asked about Monsignor Volpini, saying: "What is the matter, why does he not come to see me?"

It was explained to the Pontiff that the excitement of the last few days had overcome M. Volpini, who was quite unwell. But the Pope was not informed that Monsignor Volpini was dead. A rumor is now in circulation to the effect that the Pope is suffering from inflammation of the kidneys.

Mazzoni Denies.

Rome, July 11.—At 4:30 p. m.—Dr. Mazzoni emphatically denies that the Pope is suffering from inflammation of the kidneys.

REPORTERS

Are Determined to Ascertain Everything Possible About Pope.

Rome, July 11.—The reporters are determined by all means to ascertain everything possible about the Pope. It is announced that the local spiritualists have been in council, and have implored spirits to come to their aid and were replied to by the shade of Pope Pius IX, which declared that Leo XIII has a tumor in the pleura, of a papillous nature, and that the cyst for which the Pope was operated on some years ago is reforming.

Latest Bulletin.

Rome, July 11.—7 p. m.—The following bulletin has just been issued: "After a rather quiet day, the patient's condition is generally easier, the thorax was again examined. There was no increase of liquid in the upper portion of the thorax to give indications of pleuritic irritation. The pulse was strong and full, at 80. Respiration 24, and temperature 36.9 centigrade. His mental condition was brighter. ROSSONI, MAZZONI AND LAPONI."

SHERIFF IS OVERPOWERED

And Prisoner Awaiting Trial for Murdering Another Sheriff, Escaped.

Junction City, Kas., July 11.—Gibbert Mullin, the federal prisoner, who led the mutiny at the Fort Leavenworth prison, in November 1901, and who has been in the county jail here for the past year, awaiting trial on the charge of having murdered Sheriff Pease early today with three others, a white man and two negro prisoners, escaped. The sheriff was overpowered, and badly cut about the head, but he succeeded in getting the cell door closed before all five prisoners could get out.

The quartette ran through the eastern part of town toward the river, and compelling a fisherman to row them to the other shore, made for the thick timber.

The sheriff followed in a buggy and posse were quickly organized and joined in the chase. Later soldiers were sent over from Ft. Riley to assist in the hunt. Shortly before noon two of the negroes were captured and returned to jail. Sheriff Pease, although badly injured, is still leading the searching party. Mullins, who is a negro, is a desperate man, and it is expected he will put up a hard fight.

In the Fort Leavenworth outbreak, twenty-six prisoners escaped. Mullins and nearly all the others finally being captured after a desperate fight in which guard J. B. Wladrupe and several of the convicts were killed.

LAUREL REGAINED

Brilliant Shooting by American Team Won the Palma at Bisley.

All Competitors Were Easily Defeated--The Interesting International Shoot Was Witnessed by Many Distinguished Personages. American Ambassador Attended.

Bisley, July 11.—America today recaptured the Palma trophy. Her team scored an aggregate of 1,570 out of a possible 1,800, and beat all the best shots of Europe, South Africa, Australia and Canada, congregated for the first time on English soil to compete for the world's premier's shooting trophy. Great Britain was second with 1,555. With the exception of the 800 yard range, at which the United Kingdom beat them by three points, the American team demonstrated superiority over all comers.

Bisley, July 11.—The annual contest of the National Rifle Association opened here today with the great international team match for the Palma trophy. The weather conditions were favorable and the shooting at 800 yards resulted as follows: United Kingdom 534, American 511; Canada 536, Natal 512, Norway 447, France 411, Australia 518. The above scores were out of a possible 600.

The individual American scores at 800 yards were: Private Geo. Cook 74; Sergeant J. H. Keough 73, Corporal C. E. Winder 71; Corporal W. B. Short 69, Lieut. K. K. V. Casey 67; Sergeant George Doyle 66; Lieut. Thomas Holcomb Jr. 66; Lieut. A. E. Wells 65.

Private Cook with 74 tied Martin of the British team for the best score at this range. When the shooting in the second stage commenced the Americans overhauled and passed their British competitors. In the first twenty shots the United Kingdom dropped eighteen points, against 8 dropped by the Americans. As the shooting progressed the keen interest in the contest was shown by the number of spectators continually arriving. The clearness of the atmosphere made the shooting conditions ideal. There was a variable breeze which was blowing at the average velocity of six miles an hour.

Total Scores.

Bisley, Eng., July 11.—At 3:30 p. m.—The scores of half the teams at 800 yards were: American 266; United Kingdom, 257.

Individual Scores.

Bisley, Eng., July 11.—The scores of the other Americans at 800 yards were: Short 66; Cook 63, Holcomb 61, Wells 59.

By the time half the teams had shot off at 800 yards, the Americans had gained nine points, thus giving them a lead of six points after deducting the three they were behind in the first stage.

To the total 266, Keough contributed 69, Casey 68, Doyle 66 and Winder 63. The Canadian first squad was second with 252; the British team was third, with 257. In the second half of the 800 range, the Americans gained another two points, making the aggregate at the end of the second stage as follows: American 1,966; United Kingdom 1,958, Canada 1,940; Australia 1,910, Natal 960; Norway 855, France 845.

Twelve Points Ahead.

Bisley, Eng., July 11.—At the completion of the shooting of half the teams at a thousand yards, America was twelve points ahead.

Americans Lead in Second Stage.

Bisley, July 11.—Shooting regular.—The totals for the second stage, were: America 515, Great Britain 504; Canada 494, Australia 492; Natal 447; Norway 408, France 404.

Interest in the latter firing centered chiefly in the Americans and British. The Canadians had been regarded as dark horses, but their shooting did not justify any hope of their success. The shooting of the American team was not only quicker than that of the others, but the Americans strictly followed the instructions of their commanding officer to refrain from unnecessary conversation in which some of the other teams indulged. The fact that the Americans had gained a substantial lead at the end of the first two ranges elated them and made them confident of their ability to maintain the advantage in the last stage and recover the trophy.

Ambassador Choate and Naval Attache Stockton, were among the spectators.

Additional Aggregate Scores.

Bisley, Eng., July 11.—The other grand aggregates were: Australia 1,601; Natal 1,399; Norway 1,241; and France 1,230.

SUICIDE FOLLOWED

As Natural Sequence to Kishineff Atrocities. Ringleader Took His Life.

Czar Had Ordered Minister of Justice to Make Stringent Investigation Into the Horror--Number of Persons Have Been Arrested for Complicity.

Berlin, July 11.—The Frankfurter Zeitung says it learns by way of Bucharest, Roumania, that the ringleader of the Kishineff atrocities, a man named Plesjewska, has committed suicide at Kishineff because the director of the Russian ministry of Justice had arrived there, commissioned by the Czar to make a stringent investigation into the horror.

The Frankfurter Zeitung correspondent adds that a number of persons have been rearrested and that other persons morally responsible for the murders have been arrested. The Frankfurter Zeitung also says it learns from another source that former governor Von Raaben has returned to Kishineff and is endeavoring to get the Jewish population of that place to unite in a testimonial to the effect that he behaved correctly during the massacres.

PROTESTS

That Came From U. S. Have Had Practical Effect.

Washington, July 11.—Information of an entirely reliable character concerning the Kishineff massacre has reached here and front offices received today. It appears that the protests which arose in the United States and many other civilized countries against the murderous attacks upon the Jews in Kishineff last spring has not been without practical effect. This information states that the Russian government has been moved to vigorous action in the matter of investigating and punishing those who were responsible for the Kishineff massacre. Eight hundred arrests have been made and as a result of a preliminary examination, 350 persons have been remanded for trial in the lower courts. Four hundred and fifty cases have been sent to the court of appeal of which 53 are indictments for manslaughter. A change of venue having been ordered, the trials of those accused of murdering and horribly mistreating the Jews at Kishineff will occur in September at Tiraspol. The services of four distinguished lawyers has been secured to assist the prosecution in the murder cases, and three well known lawyers will aid in the prosecution of the synagogue property cases.

NO VERACITY IN STATEMENT.

President Says Properties Will Not Go to Everett-Moore Syndicate.

Cleveland, O., July 11.—Referring to a published statement to the effect that the bankers committee in charge of the affairs of the Everett-Moore syndicate would, within a few days, relinquish connection with the syndicate and turn over the various properties to the original owners, President Dickinson of the Federal Telephone company said today:

"I wish to state on behalf of the Everett-Moore syndicate of the Federal Telephone Co., and also of the bankers committee that there is not the slightest foundation for this statement. It is stated in the article in question that as a matter of fact, the bankers committee have exercised but little authority for months past. This statement is also absolutely without foundation. Not one dollar of the indebtedness has been paid, no changes have been made in any loan on collateral, and no action whatever taken in relation to the affairs of the Federal Telephone Co., or the Everett-Moore Syndicate, without the formal approval in writing of a sub-committee of the bankers' committee.

"As a matter of fact, while the bankers' committee as a whole has met, but infrequently during the past few months, its powers have been exercised by a sub-committee, with even greater care, and with a much more intimate relation to the affairs of the syndicate and the telephone company than during the early days of the operations of the committee.

It is also stated in this article that the members of the syndicate are wealthy men. Whether this is true or not, depends wholly upon the ability of the syndicate, with the aid of the bankers committee to finally adjust its affairs. If compelled to liquidate today, the syndicate members would in my judgment, be practically ruined."

THE MEDICAL TALK

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures dyspepsia and other forms of "stomach trouble." It restores the weak and run-down man or woman to sound health.

"Some time has elapsed since I have written you in regard to the treatment I have been taking under your instructions," says Mr. E. E. Cingmar, of Minneapolis, Minn. "When first I commenced taking your remedies I was under treatment of a well known specialist in this city (who had been for four months), for catarrh and general stomach trouble, and I was rapidly getting worse. Got so bad that I could not eat anything that did not distress me terribly, and I was obliged to quit taking the doctor's treatment entirely. I was greatly reduced in flesh. As a last resort I wrote to you and stated my case, and after receiving your instructions I followed them closely. After taking five bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and one of his 'Pileus Pellets' I commenced to improve, and decided to continue the medicine, and observe your instructions regarding hygienic treatment. It is now nearly six months since I commenced your treatment and I can say that I am well and never feel better. My life is a very grateful to you for what your medicine has done for me."

Captain of Balled Ship Reports on Explorations in South Pole Region.

San Francisco, July 11.—Capt. Wm. Colbeck, of the relief ship Morning, tender to the exploring ship Discovery now in the south pole regions, is here en route to London, to report. He says the main work of the Discovery has been the location of between 400 and 500 miles of new coast line, and she worked as far south as latitude 77 degrees, 50 minutes south. By sited, the members of the party got as far south as 82 degrees, 17 minutes south latitude, the farthest south any man has gone.

A lot of new marine fauna had been discovered; also some marine plants, but they are a very low type of organism. Seals abound but the polar bear and the walrus are not there. No new large animals were found. The cold there is far worse than in the Arctic. In the latter region in the summer, the temperature gets to 50 and 60 degrees above zero. In the Antarctic region below zero is summer weather. Valuable geological, seismic and meteorological data have been secured.

Why Take Any Chances with some new and untried medicine for such serious troubles as diarrhoea, cramps, dysentery, when you should know that for over half a century Painkiller has cured millions of cases. Look out for imitations, there is only one genuine, "Perry Davis".

NINETY-TWO YEARS OLD.

One of the readers of Medical Talk, whose letters frequently reach the desk of that paper is Mr. Lucius Coe, Shade, Ohio, who will be ninety-two years old at his next birthday. In a letter he says:

"It will not be long, if life is spared me, until I shall have reached my ninety-second station on life's journey. My health is good. I retire to rest at 9 o'clock, to enjoy a quiet night's sleep. Have no rheumatic pains to disturb my slumber. At 5 a. m. arise from my bed prepared to engage in the labors of the day. No tired feeling to depress or hold me back. No bad taste caused by use of tobacco to be rinsed off before taking breakfast. My morning hour, with hoe in hand, is spent in cultivating my garden. I am able to move about with the elastic step of a man sixty to sixty-five years of age. I am a member of the Christian church. We are not able to have preaching every Sabbath. By having some member of the church assist me when no preacher is present we have interesting meetings. I do my writing without glasses."

The good that does good. That's what you get in Hager's Cordial of Cod Liver Oil. That's why you miss the grease, the fishy odor and taste. That's why it agrees with the weakest stomach of invalid or infant. That's why it is the ideal summer tonic for stomach or blood.

No Life, No Energy No Ambition.

These are common expressions nowadays and the finger points that point with unfeeling accuracy to a nervous system robbed of its vitality by over-exertion, overstrain or excess of some kind. That anyone should allow this condition to go on to complete mental, physical or sexual ruin is a sure sign that he is neglecting, is a positive crime when the cure is at hand in Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills—a medicine designed expressly for this condition—a medicine that cures to stay cured by resupplying the very essential of life.—Nerve Force.

Mrs. L. Hanson, of No. 453 north Elizabeth street, Lima, Ohio, says: "As a good general tonic to nerves and system—one that rebuilds, gives life, energy and ambition, strength and steadiness to the nerves as well as gives restful sleep we can recommend Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills we got at Melville's Drug Store. We found they had all of these properties and like them very much." 50c a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. LARGE GAIN LAST QUARTER

In Receipts of Local Postoffice. Nearly $2000.00 in Stamps Sold.

The closing up of the postal business for the year ending, June 30th, shows the receipts for that period to be $5,000 in excess of the year ending June 30th, 1902 at local post office. For the quarter ending June 30th, 1903, the sales of stamps and stamped envelopes reached the sum of $19,839.93, the largest quarter the office ever had.

Assistant postmaster George Holland when asked for a reason for the increase attributed it to the constant increase in population, and to the increase in the number of corporations, particularly those having to do with stamps.

AN EFFORT WILL BE MADE

To Recover Some of the Stock That Was Returned by the Adams and Sarber People.

Cleveland, July 11.—At the Adams and Sarber hearing, President Dilley, of the Cleveland and Trenton Rock Oil Co., was notified by trustee Zucker not to dispose of the Chicago and Lima stock or 1000 shares of Cleveland and Trenton rock stock to that company by Adams and Sarber, as an effort would be made to recover it upon the grounds that the surrender was a preference.

A Very Close Call. "I stuck to my engine although every joint ached and every nerve was racked with pain," writes C. W. Bellamy, a locomotive fireman, of Burlington, Iowa. "I was weak and pale without any appetite and all run down. As I was about to give up, I got a bottle of Electric Bitters, and after taking it, I felt as well as I ever did in my life." Weak, sickly, run down people always gain new life, strength and vigor from their use. Try them. Satisfaction guaranteed by H. F. Vorkamp. Price 50 cents.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution. Big Sum of Good Money

To Eat Dinner

With President of the Steel Trust.

Arabian Knights Story of the Internal Machine Has Been Exploded.

After Submission to Bomb Experts, Mystery Is Solved by Discovery That It Was Diaphragm From Heating Trap.

So that he might take dinner Charles M. Schwab the president of the steel trust a Pittsburgh mill put $240 yesterday for a man to take him from Crest Springs in time for dinner. The man was named Rock and as he from breaking the car fares to dinners came taking the record for the run from Crest Springs and Pittsburgh, on Pennsylvania. The train was made of the fastest type Atlantic and a common day the entire time consumed on the trip was three hours and forty minutes. The train went flying at a mile a minute at 11:30 a.m. and arrived in Pittsburgh at 2:10 p.m. with the millionaire and his wife. Rock was kept in the car and trying to keep the hot day coach. He had many of the car crew. Two hundred his business and taken the first section of the train at 10:27 a.m. and would have taken him to the city at 10:30 a.m. in the Pullman. The fare for first-class fare was $1.00 and for the Pullman $1.00.

At the division office of the steel trust yesterday just between the first and second section of the train Supt. Whitler was contacted and agreed to give him a car for the sum of $240 and the fare making a total of $480 which he paid.

A Good Story Spoiled
A special detective have quietly investigating the story of the Gazette that an internal machine had been placed near the steel trust. The C. H. & D. 20th ave. and they have lifted it from the supposed anachronistic which would have blown the steel house into splinters and seat the remains of its occupants to the ground.

When the bomb was discovered it landed as tenderly as a bit of cotton and first tried to the center of the house and carried by the person who made an expert on high explosives. He made a careful and cautious examination through the glass and pronounced it extremely dangerous although the bomb was new to him. The police again shouldered this time more than before and the two men walked the steps cautiously to the door where a large hole was dug into the floor. A terrible thing buried.

Now comes the revelation that the internal machine was nothing more than a diaphragm that had fallen out of the steam heating trap on the passenger coach and was about as dangerous as a banana.

Refuse Passes
The Huntington News Democrat of today says

Armed in the street this afternoon coming from well informed circles is to the effect that hereafter the Chicago & Erie railroad will not issue passes to employees but rather over the company's own which means between Chicago and Marion. This step is taken because of the alleged abuse of the passes by those to whom it has been granted. Local employees of the railroad have been accustomed to number of passes of this kind and if the rumormongers to be authentic the taking away of the pass will be much regret among employees.

Request That He Be Consecrated in Rome by Cardinal Satolli Granted.

Rome, July 11.—The most Rev. J. Harty, archbishop of Manila, cabled the Vatican at the end of June, asking for permission to be consecrated in Rome. At the same time, he cabled to Cardinal Satolli saying that it would be the greatest pleasure of his life to be consecrated in Rome. Cardinal Satolli answered the proposition and Cardinal Rampolla gave orders to answer the archbishop's wish and a message to that effect was drafted July 2 but archbishop Harty not receiving it, cabled again yesterday asking for an explanation. When he found that through mistake the original dispatch had not been forwarded, Cardinal Rampolla ordered it immediately sent to Archbishop Harty, who is expected to arrive in Rome, before the end of the month.

The Real Offender

(Original)
One morning while Washington's headquarters were at Morristown, N. J., in a house now set apart for Revolutionary relics, Colonel Alexander Hamilton of the staff sat writing in the general's private office. Lieutenant Ralph Tower, about Hamilton's age—they were both about twenty-five—entered.

"How are you, Ralph?" said Hamilton. "What can I do for you?" "I understand you represent the general in his absence."

"I do." "Have full power to give passes?" Hamilton smiled a bit. "He was Washington's right hand man for far more important matters than writing passes."

"Where do you wish to go?" he asked. "To Trenton to visit my sweetheart, Marjorie Hastings."

"What! The daughter of that old Tory Humphrey Hastings?" "The same. The daughter is heart and soul with us. One of Howe's staff is in love with her and her father is trying to force her to marry him. She has sent me a message that she needs to see me on a matter of great importance."

"But if you enter the enemy's lines in civilian clothes and you are caught you will be hanged for a spy." "I will take the risk."

"Very well. If you insist I will give you permission in the general's name. You might as well be hanged for an old sheep as a lamb, so keep your eyes and ears open for information of Howe's movements."

At 9 o'clock the same night Major Tarbel of General Howe's staff was sitting with Marjorie Hastings in her father's house at Trenton.

"There must be some reason, Marjorie," he said, "that you have not given me why you decline my offer."

"There is, but I cannot give it to you without betraying a friend of my father's. I should like to tell you, but I cannot."

"I promise on my honor to hold it sacred."

"Well, then," replied Marjorie, "I am betrothed to an officer in the Continental army."

With a sob the major arose and, with his lips, was about to withdraw when both were startled by the sound of wheels without. Marjorie turned pale. Major Tarbel strode to the door.

He threw it open and saw two soldiers who were awaiting him, smiling with out and between them the figure of a young man of refined features dressed in the clothes of a countryman. His coat bore the marks of the coarsest texture and his hair of common type.

"Who are you?" asked Tarbel of the captive.

"Lieutenant Ralph Tower of the Continental army. I am neither spy nor traitor, but am here at the bidding of my betrothed Marjorie Hastings."

Tarbel looked from one to the other, then directed his orderlies to remain without while their prisoner was in invited to enter and the door was closed. "Marjorie," said the major, "I find myself in a position from which I would gladly be free. It is my duty to turn over Lieutenant Tower to be dealt with by your father."

During this brief interview Marjorie had stood pale, her hand on her bosom to still the violent beating of her heart. When Tarbel announced his intention she drew a few convulsive breaths, preparing for a desperate move, then said:

GOOD WELL IN WYANDOTT.

The Ludwig & Courad oil well, on the Roszman farm which was shot last week, took a sudden action to flow Tuesday and spouted forth a quantity of the greasy fluid. Machinery was attached and Tuesday afternoon the pump was started. The well will be good for from twenty to thirty barrels per day—Upper Sandusky Union.

E. W. McKean, of Beaver Dam, and W. B. Ash, of Bluffton, both prominent oil operators, are preparing to do some prospecting near city of Danaboo.

THOUSANDS WERE ALLOWED

To Sleep in New York Parks. All Police Rules Suspended During Heat.

New York, July 11.—Thousands of persons slept peacefully in the parks of Greater New York, during the night despite the heat, secure in the knowledge that no policeman would awaken them and drive them back to their own like tenements, lodging houses and thickly peopled apartment buildings. One of the most rigid police rules was ordered suspended, and the officers in all boroughs were notified to see that no orderly person availing himself of the privilege was disturbed. The suspension of the rule will continue during the heated term. It had become almost imperative that some such relief measure should be taken by the city officials. Men and boys had been sleeping for two nights on benches and lawns all over the city, in violation of the police regulations, and as a general thing the patrolmen did not have the heart to disturb them.

DESPERATE BATTLE IS

Raging Between Mexican and Japanese Working on the Santa Fe.

New York, July 11.—A bloody battle between 150 Japanese and the same number of Mexicans has been raging for 5 days on the desert between Barlow and Victorville according to a Tribune dispatch from Los Angeles, Cal. Four are reported dead and about 50 wounded and the end of the struggle is not in sight. The combatants are all employed by the Santa Fe railroad, laying new rails and the company has been forced to suspend operations in that section. The Japanese and Mexicans have been working peaceably side by side for some time, but on Monday a Japanese made an insulting remark about a Mexican and fight began. When the two workmen came to blows, sides were quickly formed and battle lines drawn. Tools used in railroad building and boulders

ITALIAN AMBASSADOR

And Suite the Guests of Italian Diplomatic Corps in San Francisco.

San Francisco, July 11.—Signor Elmondo Mayer Des Planches, the Italian ambassador to the United States, has arrived here, accompanied by Madame Des Planches, and suite. This is the first time that the Pacific coast has been visited by any person of such distinction, in the Italian diplomatic corps and the country men of the ambassador residing here, are delighted to welcome him.

Swine in the Old Days.
In olden times when a jury in England remained impervious to the judge's gentle mode of persuasion fine and imprisonment were resorted to. The jury that acquitted Sir Nicholas Throckmorton was condemned to eight months imprisonment in addition to the payment of a large sum of money. In the reign of Queen Elizabeth a jury, having reduced a prisoner's alleged crime of murder to that of manslaughter, was at once sent to prison and bound over in a large sum to be of good behavior. Penalties were likewise inflicted upon the innocent wife and children of the offending jurymen. Even now it is believed by some legal authorities that a judge has the right to inflict a fine upon a jurymen refusing to obey his directions. Such power, however, not exercised except in the case of a juror absconding himself without a justifiable cause. Of this practice there is the following story: A judge had fined a jurymen for nonattendance. On hearing that he had been unable to be present because of his wife's funeral the judge, whose wife was said to be not of a particularly gentle nature, exclaimed: "Has he? That was a good excuse indeed. I wish we all had the same!"

The Dog in Egypt.
In Egypt the dog was a friend and faithful servant. He lived in the house with his master, followed him in his walks, attended the public ceremonies, sometimes free, at other times held in leash by a slave or child or in princely families by a favorite dwarf. At his meals he had his place marked under the benches of the guests. As in Greece and Rome, he was there to dispose of bones, the fragments of meat and the pieces of bread that were thrown down and in a general way to keep the dining room clean. These were certainly not very refined fashions, and if our house dogs had to satisfy themselves in this way they would be likely to die of hunger.

The ancients did not feel the delicate tastes and disgusts in such matters that we experience. Their life presented excessive refinements and rude features of which we have no idea side by side. The house dog in Egypt was a domestic, working at his trade, only his trade was one in which we have ceased to employ him.

The Cry of the Loon.
The cry of the loon is one of the strangest, weirdest sounds in nature. Those who have heard it can scarcely wonder that it has so often been woven into song and legend.

A blood red ring hung round the moon. Hung round the moon. Ah, me! Ah, me! I heard the piping of the loon. A wounded loon. Ah, me! And yet the eagle feathers rare I, trembling, wove in my brave's hair.

Almost all writers who have attempted to describe the cry of this bird have likened it to unworldly laughter. Thus Mr. Vernon Bailey, speaking of the sound, describes it as follows: "Only on the lonely lake in the heart of the woods do you get the startling thrill of the loon's wild cry—one clear, piercing note or a long, quivering, demoniacal laugh that to the timid suggests a herd of screaming panthers."

Cut Off Their Hair.
A procession of the unemployed that took place in London in 1794 did not meet with any great success or public sympathy. In that year wigs went out of fashion, and the wig makers of London were thrown out of work and reduced to distress. They petitioned George III. to compel gentlemen to wear wigs by law. As the wig makers went to procession to St. James' to present their petition it was noticed that most of those persons who wanted to compel other people to wear wigs wore no wigs themselves. This striking the London mob as very inconsistent, they seized the processionists and forcibly cut off all their hair.—London Express.

Voice and Art.
"Why in the name of all the saints," asked the master, "have you come back to Bologna—you, the most accomplished singer in the world?"
"Because," said the pupil—"because—because, dear master, I feel that I don't yet really know how to sing."
"My son," was the reply, "that is what none of us shall ever know on this earth. In the next world there may be more time, for when we are young we have the voice, but not the art, and when we are old we have the art, but not the voice."

Genius and Goodness.
I have had sometimes in mine the gloved and white palm of the upper class and the heavy, black hand of the lower class and have recognized that both are but of men. After all these have passed before me I say that humanity has a synonym equality and that under heaven there is but one thing we ought to bow to, genius, and the only thing before which we ought to kneel, goodness.—Victor Hugo.

He Was Economical.
Blossom—Why did you break with young Holdfast? I understood he was a very careful, economical young man.
Flossie—No doubt of it. The last time he called on me he brought a bag of candy, sat and munched it all evening and took home with him all that was left.—Baltimore American.

Quite Unlike.
"Why, George, what an enormous pile of letters!" exclaimed the bride of a week. "Billets doux, I suppose."
"No, my dear," replied the other half of the sketch. "They are billets over-due."—Chicago News.

Non-committal.
"Pardon me, sir, but isn't there another artist in this building?"
"Well, that is a matter of opinion. There is another fellow who paints."

TOO MUCH MEDICINE.

The system continually wronged by over-eating and over-drinking, and the debilitated condition aggravated by dosing with harsh nauseous drugs and medicines.

The excessive and indiscriminate use of medicines, in these days, cannot be too strongly condemned. The food you eat if properly digested, is all the tonic you need. Only common sense is needed. The food must be digested and the bowels must not be allowed to clog. Preserve your health by preventing these conditions.

Constipation surely leads to indigestion, biliousness, etc., and these conditions when neglected, affect the condition of the blood, debilitate the system, rendering it susceptible to more serious ailments, and less able to resist such attacks.

If your stomach has been abused by over-eating, weakened by drugs or sickness, you won't have to stop eating or diet, yourself. All you need is something that will aid the stomach in its functions and relieve it from being constantly irritated by undigested food. The purest and simplest remedy for this purpose are the California Prune Wafers, a natural diuretic made from the pure, fresh fruit, a general laxative and sweetener of the stomach—no other medicine is necessary.

When you are bilious, it is a sign that your liver is not doing its duty. The bile, instead of being excreted from the body through the intestines, is taken up in the blood. As a result of biliousness, the entire system suffers. There are gripping pains in the abdomen, headache, dizziness, constipation, pain in the right side, and sometimes the skin becomes yellowish and rough and itchy. Take two or three California Prune Wafers after meals, and in a short time your liver will be performing its proper function, driving the bile from the system. Use nothing but California Prune Wafers—no other medicine is necessary.

California Prune Wafers if taken as directed, will positively cure the most obstinate cases of indigestion, Torpid Liver, Constipation, Biliousness, etc., so as to be cured.

CALIFORNIA PRUNE WAFERS do the work without the slightest pain, gripe or nausea. They produce natural and easy movement of the bowels, are easy to take, pure and healthful.

They are nature's own remedy, better than pill or purge, better than cathartic tins that grip and nauseate, better than anything for moving the bowels, because CALIFORNIA PRUNE WAFERS are a NATURAL DIS-SOLVENT and not a purge, acting gently and naturally on the contents of the bowels, producing easy movement. They regulate the liver and stomach, cleanse the system and Purify the blood, cure all Bowel Troubles, Bad Breath, Bad Blood, Wind on the Stomach, Foot Mouth, Headache, Pimples and Dizziness, a Liver Tonic from Nature's Laboratory. 100 Wafers for 25c.

HERPICIDE
Relieves Dandruff Immediately and causes thick, glossy hair to supplant the former thin, brittle growth.

Newbro's Herpicide
performs its work on the principle, "If you cure the cause, you remove the effect," and consequently it reaches and kills off the germ-brood which is responsible for all scalp diseases. It thus makes dandruff and falling hair impossible, and promotes a luxuriant growth of hair that soon becomes the pride of the owner. Even on bald spots it soon produces hair as thick and luxuriant as anyone could wish for.

One bottle will convince that it is the only hair restorer that really restores.

Pronunciation.
When he talked to a plain American blade He called the Serbian town Belgrade. To the man of the world in accents sad, He said 'twas a pity about Belgrad; But when he set foot on Boston sod I'm blest if he didn't call it Belgrad. —H. W. R.

James Bacome

Passes Away at His Home in South Lima.

Debt of Two Thousand Dollars Raised by Members of Grace Church.

F. Drennen Entertains in Honor of His Nephew From Chicago. South Side Church of Christ Has a Social.

This morning at 8:45 James Bacome passed away at the home of his son, Robert Wm. Bacome, of 630 South Central avenue. He had been ailing for some time in the spring, but was not moved to his bed until about four weeks ago. Chronic kidney trouble was the disease that finally carried him off. He was 79 years old last night.

James Bacome was born in Champlain county, this state, October 8, 1843. In 1863 his parents moved to Adams county where he remained until a farm until thirteen years when he removed with his family to Lima. His own father died less than two years ago, aged 88 years, 8 months and 23 days.

James Bacome was married in Adams county to Hannah Vorhes, and they survived nearly 21 years. They were born 8 children, of whom only three remain to grieve a father. The children are: William Wm. Bacome, Mrs. Alice Vorhes, Mrs. Ida Settlemyer, Mrs. A. B. Bacome, whose son died about a year ago, Mrs. Robert E. Bacome, Robert E. Bacome and Abby Bacome, both of Lima.

Funeral arrangements are not complete, but everything can be arranged except the exact hour of services. The funeral services will be held Monday morning at 10 o'clock at Grace M. E. church, by Rev. W. J. Hagerman. The funeral will be held because the interment will be at Fairmount cemetery, in the south of this city.

Jubilee Meetings.

The indebtedness that has been preying on the minds of the membership of Grace M. E. church for so many years, has been cleared away at last. Never since the church was founded, more than 22 years ago, has it been entirely free from indebtedness. When ten or twelve years ago the parsonage was built and the church was repaired, the debt was greatly increased. Many times efforts have been made by the members, under the leadership of different pastors, to raise the encumbrance, but these have only partially succeeded. But a special effort has been made since January 1st, 1902, under the leadership of Rev. W. J. Hagerman, and never have they been so determined to wipe out that indebtedness, and they feel well repaid, for success has crowned their efforts at last. The last of the amounts pledged have been paid, and tomorrow will witness the burning of the notes, and the celebration of a grand jubilee service. The day will begin with a sunrise meeting in the church at 5:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. E. T. Bowditch. After the Sunday school the following program will be rendered, beginning at 10 o'clock:

The Gun Shoot.

The gun shoot yesterday afternoon resulted in a tie between Brandt and Marshall with a score of 25 out of a possible thirty. Mooney beat them both, but he was under a handicap of five. In shooting of the tie Marshall won out. The score was as follows: Mooney 27, Marshall 35, Brandt 25, Holdridge 21, Dean 19, Doule 15, Leatherman 15, Eiling 8.

At the South Lima Baptist Church.

Rev. Gilbert W. Schmitz, pastor. The church is all ship-shape for Sunday's services. The carpet is down and everything will go on as usual. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m., R. E. Irwin, superintendent. Preaching at 10:30 a. m.; Junior work at 2 p. m.; preaching at 7:30 p. m.

Taken to the Hospital.

Catherine Barnett, a colored serving girl, who has been working at Alec Castle's on south Main street, was removed to the city hospital yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock. She has been ill for a week with peritonitis, and was removed to the hospital so as to have better care.

Another Sociable.

The young people of the south Lima Baptist church will give an ice cream social some evening next week on the beautiful lawn of M. C. Rickett's at 514 south Pine street. Ice cream and cake will be served, and a good social time is guaranteed to all who attend. Watch this column for the date, which will be announced later.

Missionary Meeting.

The Ladies' Mission Circle of the south Lima Baptist church will meet with Mrs. John Broderick, of 504 McPherson avenue, next Wednesday afternoon at 2:30. This meeting in the afternoon is to take the place of the open services in the church, which was to be held on the evening of the same day.

Dangerous Accident.

This morning about 8:30, what might have been a very serious accident, occurred at Sinclair & Morrison's Tool Works on west Eureka street. As it was the victim of the mishap, James Cunningham, will be laid up for two weeks or even a month. He and another man were using a cutter on the steam hammer, when the hammer came down unexpectedly, driving the knife into the unfortunate man in the region of the groin. Dr. Hoover was hastily summoned, and found it necessary to take several stitches. An ambulance was called and Mr. Cunningham was taken to his home at 309 north Jackson street.

About People.

There was a ball game this afternoon at the C & E grounds, between the shop men and the office men at the L. E. & W. The fatalities will be announced later.

Pastor Sims. of the south side Church of Christ, is entertaining, at his home on south Pine street, his father-in-law, Rev. J. V. Updike, pastor of the Garfield Boulevard church, Chicago, also his brother-in-law, Rev. P. O. Updike, of Jackson, Ohio.

Howard Rubel, of McPherson avenue, is suffering from a neuralgic tooth.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Crider and daughter, Audrey, of 229 east Kibby street, and Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Beall, of 1009 Hughes avenue will spend Sunday with Mr. Crider's sister, Mrs. Melina Kaiser, of Wapakoneta.

Frank Bendure, the machinist of east Kibby street, was able to resume work yesterday after a lay off of several days.

Miss Marjorie Shoup, of east Second street, is spending the day visiting the Wapakoneta fair.

Chris Eicher and wife, Peter Eicher and Rev. Ramseyer and wife left yesterday for Bluffton, where they will hold meetings in the Alliance tent.

"Whitely" Shappell and "Fatty" Jeffries are working on the Shappell farm, "making hay while the sun shines."

The child of Alec Castle, which was run over by Hawisher's delivery wagon on show day, is running around as if nothing had happened.

LOST DESIRE TO EAT.

HUNGER VANISHED AT THE SIGHT OF FOOD.

A Carpenter in Providence Cured of Stomach Trouble by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Many people think they have heart disease when their symptoms are caused simply by the pressure of gas caused by a disordered digestion. In the same way sufferers are brought to believe that their kidneys are affected when dyspepsia arouses sympathetic symptoms. We have become a race of dyspeptics and it is well to look to the stomach when debilitation and weakness arise from no evident cause.

Alfred Hartley, a carpenter, living at No. 98 Federal street, Providence, R. I., says: "I suffered greatly with stomach trouble. All desire to eat would leave me at the sight of food and when I did force myself to take nourishment my stomach would not retain it. Gas formed and made me miserable. My head ached and I had pains in my side and chest. Nothing helped me until, on the advice of a friend, I took Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People and was cured. Since then I have had no return of the stomach trouble and I have recommended the medicine to a great many people."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People cure indigestion and stomach trouble because they tone up the digestive organs and enable them to perform their natural functions. Pre-digestion and so-called dyspepsia remedies that do the stomach's work will surely weaken the organs of digestion if used for a sufficient length of time. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills make the stomach capable of doing the work nature assigned to it.

By their tonic action on the blood and nerves these pills have found a wide field of usefulness and they have performed many almost miraculous cures in stubborn cases of locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, after-effects of the grip, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexion, and all forms of weakness either in male or female. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are sold only in boxes at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, and may be had of all druggists, or direct by mail from Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

AN EPISODE OF THE RELIEF OF KNOXVILLE

(Original.)

During the civil war the people of the border states were divided in their sympathies.

One morning in the summer of 1862, when General Burnside was marching on Knoxville—a move that eventually freed east Tennessee from Confederate rule—a woman living on a farm between Knoxville and the Cumberland mountains went to her door with a broom in her hand and, looking up the road, saw two men coming on a quick run. As soon as they reached a point opposite the house they turned in, and the woman recognized in one of them her son, Walter Crain, eighteen years old.

"Mother," cried the boy, "we must hide. The 'fighting parson's' band are after us. They want me for shooting one of their men last night. They'll shoot me sure."

Mrs. Crain hurried the boys into the house and thrust them into a closet. She had scarcely done so before a man with a long beard came riding down the road, followed by a dozen others. None of them wore a uniform, and most of them were dressed in the "butternut" clothes common among the poor whites of the country. They had organized ostensibly to assist the Confederate cause, but really for terrorizing Unionists, among whom the Crain family were conspicuous. A rabid fire-eating clergyman named Sayles, called the "fighting parson," was captain of the band. When they reached the house they called:

"Is this Crain's place?"

"Yes," replied Mrs. Crain.

Sayles dismounted and, without asking any questions, to search the house. He argued that the boy would naturally go to his home for a hiding place and resolved to spare no pains to find him. It was not long before the two boys were dragged from the closet and taken out into the yard in front of the house.

"Which is Walter Crain?" asked the captain.

Neither replied. They had been schoolmates and bosom friends. Lately they had been out gunning for secessionists. Crain had shot one of their men and fled, the two boys separating. During the pursuit a country woman whom the fugitive passed told the outlaws that he was Walter Crain. The two boys came together at a point of rendezvous and made for the Crain plantation.

Sayles was one of those extreme natures who are half devil and half saint. He was impatient to learn which of the boys had killed one of his band and he had got wind of the advance of General Burnside's army across the mountains and knew that should he fall into the hands of the Yankees there were plenty of Unionists about to inform upon his misdeeds and see that he was punished.

"Are you Mrs. Crain?" he asked of the woman.

"Yes, and you're John Sayles. I know you in Kentucky when you were a boy, and a worse boy I never knew. They said when you got religion and went to preaching you had turned angel, but I didn't believe it."

"Something in this speech excited the evil in the 'fighting parson's' nature."

"Which of these boys is your son?" he asked.

"Neither."

This was false, but what matter would have answered differently? Sayles turned away with an angry exclamation, and taking two guns from his men placed one in the hands of each of the boys. Then he ordered his men to place Mrs. Crain against the side of her house with her face to the wall.

Walter Crain divined that the outlaw was preparing to make a test as to which of the boys was the son by ordering them to fire on his mother. He whispered something to his friend, who nodded assent. Both boys were pale as a night mist.

"Now, raise your guns," said Sayles, "and when I order you to fire shoot this woman. The one who fails dies!"

At the moment the notes of a bugle rang out clear and near, and horses' hoofs were heard beating the road. Every eye was turned to see, and behold, were discovered coming at a canter. At the same moment a cheer was heard in the opposite direction, and a concourse of citizens, who had heard of the approach of the Union army, were seen coming up the road, waving innumerable stars and stripes.

Suddenly the boys turned together and Walter Crain's voice was heard above the shouts:

"Fire!"

Both boys fired into the outlaws, Walter aiming at Sayles, who fell dead.

The outlaws looked about them for means of escape. They saw at once, however, that they were caught like a rat in a trap. Fences prevented their riding to the woods, while the road was packed on the north by an army, on the south by citizen Unionists.

The boys called wildly to the passing cavalry, who were not long in taking in the situation and, riding into the place, they disarmed the band.

On the march to Knoxville General Burnside, not caring to be incumbered with such prisoners, directed that they be set at liberty. This was done among throngs of Unionists, and they were surrounded by their merciless enemies and most of them shot.

A Fierce Fight

In Which Mrs. Biddy Brown Used Science.

With Her Face Showing the Marks of the Other Woman's Prowess.

The Victim of the Assault Appeared Before Mayor Robb and Mrs.
Brown Had to Pay a Fine of $10 and Costs.

Mrs. Solomon Levi, accompanied by her husband, appeared before Mayor Robb, in a sadly disfigured condition this morning. Both eyes were swelled and the face was a direct consequence of a fist fight, and the waist she wore, was spotted and streaked with the blood which flowed from her nose, where the good right hand of Mrs. "Biddy" Brown was landed repeatedly.

An early morning call brought the police to the scene of trouble on East High street, but it appears that the first round was simply a challenge, with the usual strong language indulged in by the principals, who are neighbors, but bitter enemies. Mrs. Levi has appeared in police court before, but on this occasion, she carried the marks of defeat. The police retired from the scene, supposing that the brawl had ended, and finding nothing which would warrant them in making an arrest, but an hour after came another message which demanded immediate action.

The report was the Mrs. Levi was in the hands of the enemy, and unless relief came, she would be beaten to death. Officer Fenstermaker responded, and when he returned, he had Mrs. Levi, her husband, Mrs. Biddy Brown, wife of the colored pugilist, and Sam.

Ferguson, the grocer, all answering to his authority. Mayor Robb investigated the situation, and learned from the evidence introduced that Mrs. Brown held Mrs. Levi responsible for poisoning her chickens. This accusation was the foundation for the early morning scrap, and afterwards, according to the testimony, Mrs. Brown, hiding herself in Ferguson's store, when Mrs. Levi appeared, the colored woman rushed upon her, and used the tactics which she had no doubt grown familiar with. Mr. Levi, it was claimed, went to the rescue, but was prevented from interfering until his wife was beaten almost into insensibility.

The mayor informed Mrs. Brown, that two wrongs did not make a right, and if she had a grievance, she should have reported it to the authorities. As the assault was premeditated, he gave her a fine of $10 and costs, and ordered her committed until it was paid. Mrs. Brown had her remedy, however, and the mayor found it unnecessary to send her to a cell.

Ferguson Arrested.

Another incident grew out of the bloody scrap, in which Sam Ferguson, the grocer, is held to answer for aiding and abetting the trouble. Officer Fenstermaker made affidavit that Ferguson kept Mrs. Brown secreted in his store until the proper moment arrived, and while the two women were mixing it up, prevented Mr. Levi or others from separating the contestants.

Burglary at Sidney.

The chief of police at Sidney has notified the Lima station that a burglary occurred in that city, and articles taken from a supply house which would likely be disposed of at a junk shop. Chief Mills was instructed to notify Sidney officials if the stuff turns up here.

The Day's Grind.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi were not satisfied with filing one charge against Sam Ferguson, but each signed an affidavit, Mr. Levi charging the grocer with having abused and threatened him, while Mrs. Levi signed her name to a document which charges Ferguson with having provoked the fight between herself and the colored woman. Mr. Ferguson pleaded not guilty to both charges, and the cases were set for hearing next Wednesday afternoon.

Wm. Robinson, charged with assault and battery, the complainant being his wife, waived examination, and was bound over to the grand jury. He gave bond for his appearance.

The case in Justice Reilly's court against Abe Brennehan, charged with having threatened Ed. Hiner in a menacing manner with a knife, was continued for hearing to 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Findlay.

Al Wade, one of the brothers under sentence in the penitentiary annex, to be electrocuted, is still fighting for his life, says the Toledo Times. He has written a pitiful letter to ex-chief of police Ramsey, of Findlay. Wade is anxious for Ramsey to tell what he (Wade) seems to think he knows concerning a plot to convict him and his brother of the murder of the Sullivan woman. Wade claims at the time of his and his brother's trial at Upper Sandusky, for the murder of Col. King Johnson, the offers of rewards for the murderers of Miss Sullivan lead ex-Sheriff Miller, of Fannin county, to perjure himself and to hatch up the plan to convict the Wades. Al wants Ramsey to say whether this is true or not. He seems to think that Ramsey is the only man that can get him a new trial. Wade and his brother are on better terms since his arrival in the annex. They were estranged for a time, as each believed that the other had not testified as he ought.
